

Palm Beach home sales jump by 10 percent

March 01, 2012 11:15AM

The sales volume of single-family homes and condominiums/co-ops in the town of Palm Beach rose by $73.98 million in 2011, a 10.86 percent jump from 2010, according to The Evans Report by Leslie Robert Evans & Associates. The total volume of sales in Palm Beach was $754.9 million in 2011, according to the report. "In an otherwise weak national economy, the total dollars sales volume of single-family homes and condos/co-ops was in excess of three-quarters of a billion dollars in the year 2011," said Evans, an attorney in Palm Beach and managing partner of Leslie Robert Evans & Associates.

— Alexander Britell

RELATED POSTS

Palm Beach home prices up 22 percent

Palm Beach housing saw strong 2010

Single-family home sales hit Palm Beach low

PB home sales show improvement

A home for sale in Palm Beach